

Deliverable 3: Preparing the data for analysis, performing descriptive and/or predictive analysis, and presenting the results

In this step, you should clean your data (deal with missing data, errors, etc.), perform descriptive and/or predictive analysis on your data, and report the findings. Your final report should have the following sections:

- Introduction and the main question of the project
- Data collection process
- Data summary and visualization
- Data Analysis
- Results and conclusions